

GBC Council Minutes

March 20, 2018

- Vice-President Levin Maaskant opens the meeting
- Announcement of the results of the International Affairs By-Election – Karishma Varma wins by majority, and is now the International Affairs Portfolio Director-elect
- News – Yearbook is on sale, with the special price of $42 for a bundle of this and last year’s copy, $32 for only this year’s version
- Blank page at the end for signatures of/messages from classmates
- To be delivered at/by June convocation
- The Graduate Gala will be on April 20th, early bird tickets on sale ($99) until the end of March, when prices will go up
- Guests/significant others - $140
- Included – 3-course meal, cocktail hour, open bar, entertainment, after party with DJ and snacks
- Summer courses – to increase class sizes/offering, students are encouraged to join waitlists to show interest/engagement
- GBC Engagement survey – to improve the GBC’s services, feedback on student experiences
- Constitutional Review meeting – open to anyone, March 27th, 9:30-11:30 am
- Review constitution beforehand
- IT/Treasurer Positions – applications open now for both positions, to be interviewed by President-elect James Prince
- Send resumes via email with Job description in the subject