

GBC Council Minutes

October 31, 2017

Allie

- Thanked everyone who showed up for the Halloween party, asked everyone to vote for the best costume, gift cards up for grabs
- Mentioned that space is an issue in the Schulich building. There are 13-17% more students this year. In case of any difficulty to book break-out rooms, asked people to contact GBC
- Announced the release of the November MAaG
- Thanked everyone for putting in their entries for #goplay. Revealed that contest got 1000 likes. Announced the winner's name: Amrita Jalooli (257 likes)

Azhar

- Mentioned that there are still some tickets up for grabs for Insights
- Cannot guarantee tickets at door
- Informed that there is no restriction to stay all day
- Panelists include 2 Academic Deans and 5 Program Directors
- Announced that list of speakers will be announced in 2 days

Grishma

- Showed the scoreboard from 1st round of Dean's Cup
- Announced 2nd Round Dates
- Announced Topic: Diversity & Inclusion in the workplace
- Announced that 4 hours will be given for preparation. Case will be released on Saturday, Nov. 11th at noon and deck report will be due at 4pm. Final round will be on Friday, Nov. 17th from 6-8pm
- Informed that slides will be judged by faculty and industry experts will judge final concepts
- Informed that one can register even if they have not registered in the 1st round

Catherine

- Informed about the Student v/s Faculty Soccer Game that will be held on Friday, November 10th
- Tickets priced at at $5 for early bird and $10 at event
- Informed about the launch of the MBA Games Mascot
- Encouraged to promote the event at social media '@teamschulich' on Instagram & Twitter as proceeds go to charity

Patrick

- Informed about the 'Movember' Campaign that is focused on various aspects of men's health and particularly prostate cancer, testicular cancer, mental health and suicide prevention
- Informed that fundraising teams have been put together
- Informed the concept of 'mo sista' and 'mo bro'
- Encouraged to join campaign by contributing pictures and marketing

The meeting ended with Allie wishing everyone a very Happy Halloween and inviting everyone to grab candy & popcorn.