

WIL Planned Events 2016-17

“We want women to walk out of events this year feeling beautiful, confident, and more prepared to take on the world. We want to create a network of supportive women who will help each other and build each other up in their professional and personal life journeys” – WIL Events Team

Event Name	Description	Date
C2 Panel and Members Reception	WIL's kickoff event will provide Schulich students with a diverse outlook in to the academic and career successes of mid-management level Schulich alumni from various different industries. The evening will consist of an interactive panel with 5 speakers who will share their stories as well as audience discussions. The keynote speaker will prospectively be an executive from one of our main sponsors for the year. The event will be concluded with a Member Reception, providing members with the opportunity to speak with the panellists. Following that is a Meet and Greet for WIL's Mentorship Program, which will allow for mentors and mentees to kick off their mentorship relationship.	Monday October 17 th , 2016
Past and Present Mixer	An opportunity for members to connect with previous WIL members and executives. The event offers outlooks into various industries and career paths through the diverse set of alumni attending the event. This event will also incorporate WIL's Mentorship Program, further providing an opportunity for mentors and mentees to strengthen their relationship	Wednesday November 16 th , 2016
WIL & TD's Power Your Potential	In collaboration with TD Bank, this year's theme for the event will be Power Your Potential. It's an opportunity for students to hear a keynote speech from a top TD executive, followed by a panel of five TD professionals from various departments including: Business Banking, TD Securities, Accounting, IT, and Human Resources. WIL values TD's support and partnership, this event will further expose WIL members to potential internship and work opportunities, as well as provide TD professionals to meet our member base exclusively.	Friday February 24 th , 2017
Diversity in Leadership	With the launch of Schulich's Manbassadors program last year, this event will be focusing on engaging males in the Women in Leadership movement.	Thursday January 26 th 2017

Event Name	Description	Date
13th Annual Inspire to Aspire Conference	WIL's biggest event of the year brings together some of Canada's top female executives, academics, corporate professionals, and business students to examine the rewards and challenges facing women in their pursuit of leadership roles, and to share inspirations and motivate young women to set and achieve their goals. As a full-day event, the conference will be comprised of keynote speeches, workshops, and networking sessions. Light breakfast, a full lunch, and snacks will be provided.	Friday, March 10th 2017